-Rodney Dangerfield

Vodka

Vodka is much more interesting than it might appear to the casual observer. Scrape beneath the surface and you'll find a spirit with a rich and diverse history, made from a variety of raw materials, each of which affect the finished product's final taste, and sometimes flavored with a quite bewildering array of different fruits, herbs and spices from every corner of the globe.

Brooklyn

Tanqueray

Malfy

Tequila

The Flavor profile of tequila is impacted by the region where the agave is grown in the highlands or the lowlands. Due to differences in elevation and weather, the agave plants grown in each area create different tasting tequilas. Highland agave plants are bigger and richer with a longer growing cycle, making the tequila sweeter and fruitier with floral hints. Lowland agaves have a shorter growing cycle and give tequila an earthy and herbaceous flavor and are often spicier.

Agavales Silver

Patron Silver

Milagro Anejo

Cognac

Distilled from grapes. It has many incomparable qualities: fruitiness, subtlety of bouquet, intensity, warmth and above all the complexity of the many thousands of styles and flavors from a single grape variety.

Remy Martin XO 21

"A lady came up to me one day and said 'Sir! You are drunk', to which I replied 'I am drunk today madam, and tomorrow I shall be sober, but you will still be ugly.'" - Winston S. Churchill.

Bourbon

American Bourbon is distilled once, then aged in fresh charred oak barrels. Bourbons impart a raw, sweet corn flavor due to the fact that bourbon is made with at least 51% corn. Small batch bourbons are made in limited quantities, aged six to nine years, and are characteristic of pro prohibition whiskey, with strong, rich flavors, heat and aromas.

Maker's Mark - Loretto, Kentucky 9*

Knob Creek - Clermont, Kentucky 10*

Jack Daniel's - Lynchburg, Tennessee 8.5*

Evan Williams - Bardstown, Kentucky 11*

Redemption Rye - Lawrenceburg, Indiana 10*

Canadian Whiskey

Most Canadian whiskeys are blended multi-grain liquors containing a large percentage of corn spirits, and are typically lighter and smoother than other whisky styles. Several hundred years ago, when Canadian distillers began adding small amounts of highly-flavourful rye grain to their mashes people began demanding this new rye-flavoured whisky, referring to it simply as "rye". Today, as for the past two centuries, the terms "rye whiskey" and "Canadian whisky" are used interchangeably in Canada and (as defined in Canadian law) refer to exactly the same product, which generally is made with only a small amount of rye grain.

Crown Royal - Manitoba, Canada 9*

Seagram's VO - Quebec, Canada 8*

Canadian Club - Toronto, Canada 8*

Irish Whiskey

Irish whiskey was once the most popular spirit in the world, though a long period of decline from the late 19th century onwards greatly damaged the industry. Irish whiskey has seen a great resurgence in popularity since the late twentieth century, and has been the fastest growing spirit in the world every year since 1990. The current growth rate is at roughly 20% per annum, prompting the construction and expansion of a number of distilleries.

Jameson - Cork, Ireland 8.5*

Red Breast 15yr. - Cork, Ireland 15*

Scotch Blended

Roughly nine out of ten bottles of Scotch sold around the world are blends. A mix of grain and single malt whiskies. These products are the lifeblood of the industry and the liquid expression of an art form that borders on alchemy: combining myriad components to create one harmonious and consistent whole.

Chivas Regal - Speyside, Scotland 9

Dewars - Perth, Scotland 8

Johnnie Walker Black - Ayrshire, Scotland 10

Scotch Single Malt

Single malts are noted in general for their elegance and complexity, sometimes with a refined smokiness but more often a fruitiness ranging from ripe pears and sultanas.

Balvenie Carribbean Cask 14yr 18

Macallan 12yr 12

Glenlivet 12yr 12

Oban 14yr 18

Dalmore 18yr 30

Port

This Portuguese fortified wine became very popular in England in the early 1700's while war with France deprived English wine drinkers of French wine.

Sandeman 20yr Tawny 18

The color matures from deep ruby through to amber, producing a rare and delicious Tawny Port. Maturity and fruit are harmoniously balanced.

Warres Warrior 9

Deep red color, with intensely rich aromas of ripe red fruits and spices.

On the palate well balanced and full-bodied, with a long and complex finish.

Brandy

is a spirit produced by distilling wine. Brandy generally contains 35–60% alcohol (70–120 US proof) and is typically taken as an after dinner drink. Some brandies are aged in wooden casks. Some are colored with caramel coloring to imitate the effect of aging, and some brandies are produced using a combination of both aging and coloring.

Christian Brothers 8

Vecchia Romagna Brandy 9

Grappa

Distilled from leftover grape skins, invented by Italian farmers to get through the cold winter months. It was good at warming you up. For generations, Italians enjoyed it after meals and even added a little to their morning espresso.

Bertagnoli Grappino 8

The scent is fine, harmonious, pleasant, intense. The taste is strong, harmonious, full-bodied, slightly fruity. This Grappa is obtained from the immediate distillation of selected pomace of Teroldego and Chardonnay grapes from the region of Trento.

Sarpa Di Poli 12

In the Venetian dialect Sarpa means vinaccia or the grape pomace that is used to make grappa. Sarpa di Poli is made by distilling the marcs of two grape varieties: Cabernet (40%) and Merlot (60%), from the hills of Bassano. It has a delicate, floral bouquet, slightly fragrant with juniper berry, silky on the palate

Castello di Banfi 10

It is produced with the classical double-distillation system. The pomace maintains the fragrant characteristics of the grapes from which it originates. The quality of the pomace and the careful production method give this grappa its unique character. 100% Sangiovese Tasting Notes Color: Crystal clear. Bouquet: Intense and harmonious with a hint of fruit. Taste: Dry and austere, with a clean finish.
Food Pairing Enjoy simply, on its own, after dinner or add some to an espresso for a perfect caffè corretto.

Marolo Milla Camomile Grappa 10

Milla is a liqueur made from the infusion of Camomile flowers in the grappa. The Camomile flowers are picked when fully ripened then left to steep for eleven months in the grappa. This grappa-liqueur is obtained from a traditional and easy recipe, typical in the Langhe territory, the land of Barolo and Barbaresco.

Giovi Selezione Stinging Nettles 10

The unique combination of wild nettles harvested from the Nebrodi mountains and lemon peels from organically grown trees makes this grappa flavored digestive, with a soft and delicate flavor, one of its kind

Amaro 7

Italian herb and root-based liquors that are commonly drunk as an after-dinner digestivo typically produced by macerating herbs, roots, flowers, bark, and/or citrus peels in alcohol. Many were developed in monasteries and prized for their medicinal qualities. They can vary from light amber, sweet and aromatic with only a trace of bitterness to inky dark and almost syrupy with a potent kick of bitterness. Many commercial bottlers trace their recipe or production to the 19th century. Most are made from secret recipes handed down for generations and include dozens if not hundreds of botanicals and spices collected from all over the world.

Aperol has a beautifully fragrant expression that opens with an enticing bouquet of bitter herbs and candied fruit.

Campari opens with a brilliant red color and offers an intense bouquet of strong bitter orange peel. Ends with a touch of sweetness followed by bitterness.

Montenegro is light in color and opens with a medicinal, herbal quality. Made in Bologna, this 23% alcohol amaro is very lively and refreshing with a bitter orange finish.

Zucca has a deep, rich and distinctive flavor. It is prepared using the roots of a special type of rhubarb together with other spices and botanical herbs. Its delicate, bittersweet flavors are joined by a hint of smoke on the finish.

Lucano at 28% alcohol, has a powerful nose, flush with cinnamon, fresh mint, cardamom and licorice. It has a deep, dark color with a reddish tint and pronounced caramel flavor and a finish with a nuanced sweetness.

Cynar is an artichoke based bitter with a dark caramel color and 16.5 % alcohol. Enriched from an infusion of 13 herbs and plants, making it rich in scents and a unique taste has a bittersweet flavor

Braulio, Bormio Infusion of herbs and aromatic plants, using the ancient secret recipe. Only four, among the thirteen herbs used in its preparation are known: gentian, juniper, wormwood, and yarrow. The rest are kept secret, passed from one generation to the next.

Averna at 29% alcohol this is a thick, dense expression of exotic spice, wood, maple syrup, cinnamon and dried orange peel. The mouth-feel is velvety, creamy and dense.

Fernet Branca at 40% alcohol is the most bitter and medicinal of all with menthol notes followed by loads of dried mint and spicy spearmint on the very bitter close.

Vecchio Amaro, Del Capo encloses the active principles of plenty of beneficial herbs, flowers, fruit and roots from the generous land in Calabria, infused in the finest alcohol, to aid digestion and give a feeling of wellbeing.

Villa Zarri Luminous shade of dark brown with a golden green rim. The nose is broad and elegant, full of enticing aromas of orange peel, rhubarb, and mint.

Punch Abruzzo, Evangelista is a common Italian liqueur that is known for its rich bouquet, syrupy texture and sweet flavor.

“Man being reasonable must get drunk. The best of life is but intoxication; Glory the grape, love, gold - in these are sunk - The hopes of all men and of every nation.”

-Lord Byron
